ON-DEMAND RESOURCING SOLUTIONS

Meet staffing challenges with top, hard-to-find, healthcare IT talent.

For almost a decade, Santa Rosa Consulting has been helping diverse healthcare organizations meet their dynamic, and often, unpredictable staffing challenges. We've provided top talent to some of the nation's largest healthcare providers, as well as community hospitals, and even individual departments.

From hard-to-find EHR-certified technical specialists, to long-term project managers, interim departmental leaders, and physician advisors, our talent acquisition team has the broad and deep healthcare domain experience to quickly find the right resource, at the right price, for almost any role. We have a proven track record of finding the 'purple squirrels' that elude internal HR departments and other staffing vendors for mission-critical needs such as:

- Implementation Services
- Training Services
- Program Leadership
- Project Optimization
- Legacy Support Services
- Help Desk Services

Healthcare is all we do, so we know the important nuances and special requirements of the resources you need, including short-term 'flex' staffing, project-based hiring, and transparent temporary to permanent hiring. Benefit from Santa Rosa's tools and processes to quickly and reliably get the right resource, at the right price, for the roles you need.

OUR PROMISE

How do we provide you with the right resources when you need them most? Santa Rosa's talent acquisition and management capabilities have been forged over years to deliver unparalleled responsiveness and quality candidates through several unique and powerful advantages.

// Shortest Cycle Time to Hire

From initial candidate interview, highly qualified resources can be identified and selected in as little as 3 to 5 days – far below the industry norm of several weeks. Santa Rosa maintains an extensive pipeline of candidates with high demand and scarce skillsets, complete with a pre-selected list of candidates, searched and filtered to meet your exact needs.

// Five Star Quality Resources

Many of our resources have worked with us before, thereby giving us the luxury of providing only the very best. However, all resources go through Santa Rosa's proprietary Five Gate Recruiting Process that involves rigorous vetting long before we put them in front of a client. The process includes multi-level interviews to assess both mindset and skillset, functional testing as appropriate, and much more.

// Rapid Resource Deployment

Once you say "go", our real-time eVerify I-9 pre-screened candidates are ready to work for you in as little as 48 hours. Our national network of immunization and drug screening services rapidly allows resources to adhere to your organization's requirements for contractors. Your new resources show up ready to hit the ground running.

// Flexible Client Relationships

Beyond finding the right resources, your needs extend to finding the right type of arrangement. Santa Rosa offers a flexible and nimble approach to employment partnerships. We can provide you with quality resources for a few days, weeks or many months. While most relationships are full-time, we can identify part-time assistance in certain situations. We can also provide temp to perm relationships tailored to your unique situation and interests.
